Influential women breaking boundaries in the world today

Women's History Month is an opportunity to shed light on the accomplishments and contributions of women around the world. These five women are notable for breaking boundaries.

- Xiomara Castro: Castro was sworn in as Honduras' president in January 2022. She became the first woman to hold the position, and campaigned on expanding women's rights in that country.
- Mary Barra: As the CEO of General Motors since 2014, Barra is the first woman to lead one of the three big automakers. She has invested millions into the development of self-driving cars, electric vehicles and a ride-share service called Maven.
- Giorgia Meloni: Meloni took office in October 2022 as Italy's prime minister, becoming the first woman in history to hold the position.
- Tsai Ing-wen: Tsai took office as president of the Republic of China (Taiwan) in 2016, becoming the first woman leader (and the first unmarried president) of the country.
- Catherine MacGregor: This French businesswoman became the CEO of the French energy company Engie in 2021. She is the only woman CEO in France's CAC-40 stock index.

SPRING IS NATURE'S WAY OF SAYING, 'LET'S PARTY!' ROBIN WILLIAMS

Serve up springtime flavor with beetroot soup

Certain foods tend to hit the spot a little more convincingly during particular times of year. For instance, it's hard to resist a hearty comfort food when the weather outside is cold and the winter winds are howling.

Come springtime, lighter fare regains its place in the spotlight. As spring blooms return, foodies looking for something that won't bust their belts can try this recipe for "Beetroot Soup with Mixed Seeds" courtesy of Lines+Angles.

Beetroot Soup with Mixed Seeds (Makes 4 servings)

For the soup:

- 2 tablespoons olive oil
- 1 onion
- 1 finely chopped garlic clove
- 3 chopped celeries
- 1 teaspoon dried marjoram
- 1/2 teaspoon dried dill
- 5 cups vegetable stock, plus extra as needed
- 1 1/4 lb. pickled beets, cubed, juice reserved
- 2 tablespoons plain yogurt
- Salt
- Freshly ground black peppercorns

To serve:

- 4 tablespoons plain yogurt
- 2 tablespoons chopped pistachio nuts, shelled
- 2 tablespoons black chia seeds
- 2 tablespoons pumpkin seeds
- 2 tablespoons golden linseeds or linseeds
- 1 handful mint leaves

1. For the soup: Heat the olive oil in a large saucepan set over medium heat until hot.
2. Add the onion, garlic, celery, and a generous pinch of salt, cooking for 6 to 7 minutes until softened.
3. Stir in the dried herbs and vegetable stock. Bring to a simmer before stirring in the beets.
4. Simmer gently for 20 to 25 minutes until the beetroot is very tender to the tip of a knife.
5. Pur'ee with an immersion blender, adding in some of the reserved beetroot juice to thin out the consistency to your liking; you can also thin it out with more stock or some water.
6. Return the soup to a simmer and stir in the yogurt and some salt and pepper to taste. Keep warm over a very low heat, making sure the soup does not boil.
7. To serve: When ready to serve, ladle into warm bowls and top with some yogurt.
8. Garnish with a scattering of chopped pistachios, mixed seeds and some mint leaves before serving.

Defensive driving benefits your vehicle

Defensive driving is a technique and set of skills that is designed to make roadways as safe as possible. Defensive driving teaches drivers how to anticipate potential hazards and respond to them accordingly. By maintaining awareness of one's surroundings, directing focus to the road and preparing to act quickly, drivers can greatly reduce their risk of being involved in accidents.

Although defensive driving is important from a personal safety perspective, it also can be good for vehicles. Here's a look at some of the advantages to driving defensively.

- ~ Decrease the number of vehicle repairs. Driving defensively could help keep a vehicle out of the repair shop. When a person stays focused on the road, he or she can steer clear of debris, potholes and other vehicles that might normally cause damage. If there are no bumps and bruises to a vehicle, a driver will make less frequent trips to a mechanic or auto body shop.
- ~ Reduce the frequency of maintenance. Defensive driving can mean driving more smoothly. This can help drivers extend the life expectancy of brakes and tires, saving them money along the way.
- ~ Reduce fuel consumption. Driving steadily and smoothly also can translate into greater fuel economy. This means a driver may not have to fill up at the gas pump as often.
- ~ Lower auto insurance premiums. People who drive defensively and get into fewer accidents could be rewarded with lower insurance premiums. Money saved on car insurance could be used to finance vehicle upgrades. Savings also can be repurposed for exterior and interior detailing, helping to retain the value of the vehicle for longer.

Defensive driving offers many benefits to the person behind the wheel and the vehicle itself.

Homemade pasta makes for flavorful comfort food

Pasta is enjoyed across the globe. Whether it's the main course of a meal or served up as a side dish, pasta will seemingly always have a place on the dinner table.

Pasta may not be the first thing people think of when pondering comfort food, but certain dishes, including ravioli, certainly meet the comfort food criteria. Such is the case with this recipe for "Herb Ravioli" courtesy of Lines+Angles.

Herb Ravioli (Makes 4 servings)

For the dough:

- 14 ounces flour; for pasta
- 2 egg yolks
- 2 eggs
- 1 pinch salt
- 1 tablespoon olive oil

For the filling:

- 7 ounces baking potatoes
- 1 slice stale white bread
- 3 1/2 tablespoons soft butter
- 1 bunch finely chopped chives
- 1 bunch finely chopped parsley
- Sprig chervil
- 4 ounces cr me fra"che
- 1 finely chopped shallot
- Salt & Pepper

In addition:

- Flour for the work surface
- 1 egg white
- 4 1/2 ounces bacon
- 1 bunch chives
- Chervil or parsley, to garnish

1. Combine the flour, egg yolks, eggs, oil, salt, and 2 to 3 tablespoons cold water and quickly knead to a pliable dough. Form into a ball, cover with plastic wrap and let rest for 1 hour.
2. For the filling, peel and quarter the potatoes and cook in boiling, salted water for 20 minutes.
3. Finely dice the bread. Heat 1 tablespoon butter and fry the diced bread until golden brown to make croutons. Let cool, then reserve 1 tablespoon of the croutons for serving.
4. Drain and mash the potatoes, let cool slightly, then mix with the rest of the butter, salt, pepper, herbs, croutons, and cr me fra"che.
5. Divide the pasta dough in half and roll out thinly into 2 sheets. Put teaspoonfuls of the filling on one of the sheets of pasta, leaving about 2 inches between them.
6. Brush the dough around the filling with egg white. Lay the second sheet of pasta dough on top and press together between the heaps of filling.
7. Cut out the ravioli with a pastry wheel.
8. Drop the ravioli into boiling, salted water and cook for 4 to 5 minutes, then take out and keep warm.
9. Dice the bacon and fry until crisp and brown. Wash the chives, shake dry and snip. Serve the ravioli onto warmed plates, scatter with bacon, chives and croutons and serve garnished with chervil or parsley.

March: The Month That Can't Decide What It Wants to Be

Well, it's March again, and I don't know about you, but I'm ready for it. March is that weird month where winter's holding on like a dog to a bone, and spring is trying to sneak up like a neighbor who knows you've got good snacks in the cupboard. March is the fickle woman of months. It's got a mind of its own. The wind's blowing one minute, and the next minute, you're staring at a blue sky wondering if winter ever existed.

But then, March brings us March Madness, and suddenly the weather doesn't matter. College basketball takes over like it's the only thing on Earth that matters, and for good reason. If you've ever watched the NCAA Tournament, you know that it's about more than just basketball. It's about yelling at the T.V. in a way that's completely inappropriate for someone your age and stature. It's about those underdog teams that make you feel like the little guy can win sometimes. Even if it's just for one game. And if you've never filled out a bracket, well, you are missing out. Nothing beats the pure joy of picking a Cinderella team and watching them make a run all the way to the Final Four. Even if you don't have a clue what you're doing.

But let's not forget about March 17th, St. Patrick's Day. Now, I've got nothing against the Irish, but I'm still not sure why we all wear green, drink Guinness, and pretend like we've got shamrocks tattooed on our souls. It's a fun day, no doubt about it. Parades, corned beef, and a few too many green beers. It's the one day of the year when it's socially acceptable to act like you just stumbled off the boat from Dublin, even if the closest you've ever been to Ireland is watching The Quiet Man on T.V. And, let's face it, we could all use a little bit more carefree spirit now and then.

So, March may be unpredictable. Cold one day, warm the next. But it's also full of hope. It's the month when basketball dreams come true, when we all pretend to be Irish for a day, and when you start to feel like spring's just around the corner. It's the month where, no matter what the weather does, you know something exciting is about to happen.

Now go grab a cold one, fill out your bracket, and don't forget to wear green on the 17th. After all, it's March. And anything can happen. By Leland Shipp www.lelandshipp.com

Crafts are a lucky bet for St. Patrick's Day celebrations

While it certainly can be fun to visit a pub and raise a pint in honor of St. Patrick's Day on March 17, such efforts are not necessarily a family-friendly way to commemorate the patron saint of the Emerald Isle. Thankfully, there are plenty of activities for children and adults that focus less on imbibing and more on hands-on fun so everyone can be involved equally. Crafting often fits that bill. The following are some unique craft ideas to celebrate the spirit of St. Patrick's Day. Many of these projects include items you may already have around the house.

Shamrock key chain: Find your favorite salt dough recipe and use a shamrock cookie cutter to cut out the shape of a lucky clover. Poke a hole at the top where you can connect a key ring. When the shamrock is dried and hardened, paint it in a vivid shade of green. Attach keys, a school ID or anything else to the key ring, or simply hang it from a backpack.

Leprechaun hats: With a little green paint, green card stock and construction paper in black and gold, anyone can create miniature leprechaun hats. Paint the toilet paper tube green, then wrap the bottom in a strip of black and place a gold "buckle" made out of a rectangle of gold or yellow paper. Glue the tube to a round of green card stock, and voila, you have a perfect leprechaun hat for decorating a room or table.

Easy rainbow craft: Grab some fruity O-shaped cereal and let kids sort the colors into red, orange, yellow, green, and purple. Glue rows of these colored cereal rings onto a piece of white cardstock to make the rainbow. At the base of the rainbow, glue some cotton balls to serve as the clouds.

Beaded bracelets: Visit a craft store and stock up on small green, white and gold beads, as well as some bracelet wire or poly string. Spend a few hours making bracelets that everyone can wear with their green attire for St. Patrick's Day. The bracelets also can be given as gifts.

Shamrock slime: Those who can find green glitter glue and shamrock confetti can turn their favorite slime recipe into one worthy of St. Patrick's Day.

Rainbow cereal bars: Incorporate some of the marshmallows from a favorite "lucky" cereal brand into the mix of rice cereal treats to give them a rainbow-inspired upgrade.

Pots of gold: If you have leftover plastic witches' cauldrons from Halloween, paint them gold and use them to store foil-wrapped chocolate coins. Otherwise, tie green helium-filled balloons to the cauldron to make a perfect centerpiece. St. Patrick's Day crafts get the entire family in on the fun of celebrating the Emerald Isle.

Help us Congratulate Linda, one of our February Scavenger Hunt Winners! Matt met up with Linda over at Dan's Clam Stand yesterday to deliver her new Penny the Paper Peddler Hat!

Linda picked up her February copy of the Peddler's Post at the Beef 'O' Brady's Crystal River but sees it everywhere. Linda's favorite part of the Peddler's Post is how it makes her laugh with all the jokes. She also likes the monthly scavenger hunt. She loves all the articles and the fun facts, and it does draw her to some of the advertisements, she says.

Linda is newer to Citrus County moving here about 6 months ago from Michigan but has been avid visitor for years prior. Her favorite thing to do is go thrift shopping and head out to the beach when she can. She loves Citrus County and she Loves the Peddler's Post.

Help us Congratulate Mark, one of our February Scavenger Hunt Winners! Matt met up with Mark over at Argento's Italian Bistro & Pastry Shoppe a couple days ago to deliver his hat and take this awesome picture!

Mark gets his Peddler's Post at the Winn Dixie in Hudson Florida, right off of US 19. Mark and his wife Julie moved to Hudson in beautiful Pasco County from Michigan eight years ago. Mark and Julie enjoy taking their electric bikes out to places like Starkey Ranch and other places where they can enjoy the outdoors.

Mark's favorite part of the Peddler's Post is the puzzles. Mark says this about the Peddler's Post, " He finds the Peddler's Post fun to read and enjoy. it's a unique way of entertaining his mid-morning coffee and I enjoy it."

Paws off! Practice pet poison prevention

Companion animals typically do not understand that certain items in their environments can be harmful. Pets' innate curiosity coupled with unique aromas produced by common household items can put them in jeopardy of potentially deadly poisoning.

According to veterinary experts at WebMD Pet Health Center, an estimated 232,000 cases of pet poisoning occur annually in the United States. In March 2022, the ASPCA Animal Poison Control Center hotline fielded 22 percent more calls stemming from incidents of pet toxicity than in 2021. The following are some steps pet owners can take to protect their companion animals against poisoning.

- Don't leave out human food. Dogs, cats and other animals may be lured by the sweet temptation of their owners' food. Many food scraps can be toxic to pets, including alcoholic beverages, chocolate, coffee beans, moldy foods, and raisins, among others. Keep the kitchen tidy and trash cans (indoor and outdoor) secured.
- Be careful with houseplants. While they may look beautiful and filter indoor air, certain houseplants can be toxic to pets if ingested. Before bringing any new plants into your home, check the ASPCA Toxic and Non-Toxic Plant Guide. Lilies may be pretty, but they also are quite toxic. The smallest nibble can be fatal to cats.
- Keep medications locked away. Be sure that over-the-counter and prescription medications are locked away and cannot be accessed by curious pets. Even seemingly mild medications, like human pain relievers, can be toxic to pets.
- Be safe when spring cleaning. Keep pets out of rooms when they are being cleaned by chemical products or when using insecticides. Wait a day or more before letting pets back into the area. Store products beyond a pet's reach when they're not in use.

With diligence, a significant percentage of pet poisonings can be prevented. Pet owners should do their homework about toxic items in and around their homes and do their best to keep pets safe.
